ANSWERS, ADVICE, AND SUPPORT ARE HERE.

Concern over an unexpected health problem or a change in an aging persons' needs results in a high level of stress, anxiety and a flurry of activity. Fear, confusion, guilt and frustration may surface as people struggle to navigate changing needs, manage a complex healthcare system and plan for the future. Living Well Senior Solutions Aging Life Care™ Professionals offer personalized solutions, decision guidance and support resulting in a bridge between the older adult, family members and supporting services. They are experts at identifying issues that may need to be addressed and help make decisions based on each person's unique circumstances. Personalized planning assists with clarity and a path forward. This might include options for staying successfully at home, ability to continue to travel successfully, improving overall Wellness, or if appropriate, transition support to a care community.

COMPASSION, PROFESSIONALISM,
PEACE OF MIND.

Beginning with a complete assessment of the current situation, we identify issues and challenges based on our knowledge and experience and provide tailored client centered recommendations, action steps and strategies. Together we partner for optimum outcomes. We act as an advocate whether it is at a physician's visit, during a hospital stay, nursing home stay or with insurance concerns. Guided by a strict code of ethics and standards of practice, the team's compassion is surpassed only by their professionalism. "My wife stopped worrying," "your help took the pressure off my relationship with my mom," "enormously helpful," We are so happy that you coordinate and help mom with everything. We are so appreciative of that", "Godsend" have been expressed by our clients and their families to describe their feelings once Living Well Senior Solutions team got involved.
